I'm Saved... Now What?

Therefore, he is able to save completely those who come to God through Him, since he always lives to intercede for them. Hebrews 7:25

Songwriter Phil Cross wrote a song entitled, "Saved to the Uttermost". The second verse of that song goes like this:

You must be forgiven to make heaven your home,
The good life you're livin' won't do it alone.
So trust in the Savior, He'll save you today,
And with blessed assurance you too can say.
I'm saved to the uttermost and I know that I am,
Washed in the blood of the precious lamb.

Sample Devotion

Whew! Those lyrics really speak of the blessing of salvation and the assurance we have when we place our trust in Jesus. We should not live under the illusion that life will be grand with easy living and everything will always fall into place. On the contrary, there will be tough days, hard seasons, and a wide array of temptations. Circumstances beyond your control will test your faith and you may question if God is really all that good. So, now what? The same grace that has saved you is sufficient to handle your trials and even the consequences of poor decisions. Let the Holy Spirit comfort and convict when necessary. Allow the faithfulness of God to become the pattern in which you trust and believe that God really is good when you align your life with His divine will. The definition of uttermost is furthest, greatest, or most extreme extent or amount. There is no one or nothing that can love you and save your soul like Jesus. And, when He saves, He does it completely and fully. He gives us the full amount of His unmerited favor and lavishes His love upon us. This truth will get us through many things. Fear, loneliness, isolation, worry, guilt, bondage, shame, and whatever else we may struggle with are never too hard for God. So, dear brothers and sisters, lift up your head and rest assured for you have been washed and saved by the blood of the precious Lamb to the uttermost.
